I. Provision of the website and creation of log files

Every time our website is accessed, our system or the system of our hosting provider automatically collects the following data and information from the computer system of the calling computer:

- Information about the browser type and version used, the operating system of your computer and the name of your access provider
- The IP address of the requesting computer
- Date and time of access
- Errors that are triggered when called
- Websites from which the user's system reached our website
- Websites that are accessed by the user's system via our website

The data is saved in the server's log files. The IP addresses of the users are stored anonymously so that they can no longer be assigned to the calling client. We do not use the data for the purpose of drawing conclusions about you personally.

The data mentioned are processed by our company for the following purposes:

- Ensuring a smooth connection to the website

- Ensuring comfortable use of our website
- Evaluation of system security and system stability
- For other administrative purposes

The legal basis for the storage of the data is Art. 6 Para. 1 Clause 1 lit. f GDPR. Our legitimate interest in data processing in accordance with Art. 6 Paragraph 1 Clause 1 lit. f GDPR.

The data are temporarily stored and deleted as soon as they are no longer required to achieve the purpose for which they were collected. If the data is stored in log files, this is the case after 7 days at the latest.

The collection of the data for the provision of the website and the anonymous storage of the data in log files is essential for the operation of the website. There is consequently no option for the user to object.

II. Contact forms and email contact

Data processing for information on case studies, medical content or for software demos

Contact forms are available on our website that can be used to contact us electronically for information on case studies, medical content or for software demos. If a user makes use of this option, the data entered in the input mask will be transmitted to us and stored, in particular:

- Surname, Name
- Email
- Your request

The contact forms provided are sent directly as an e-mail to customer service. Alternatively, you can contact us using the email address provided. In both cases, the user's personal data transmitted as an email will be saved.

The legal basis for processing the data that is transmitted in the course of sending an email is Art. 6 Para. 1 Clause 1 lit. f GDPR. The processing of personal data is used to process the contact. This is also the reason for the necessary legitimate interest in processing the data.

If the aim of the email contact is to carry out pre-contractual measures or to conclude a contract, the additional legal basis for processing is Art. 6 Para. 1 Clause 1 lit. b GDPR.

The data will be deleted as soon as they are no longer required to achieve the purpose for which they were collected. This is the case when the respective conversation with the user has ended. The conversation is over when it can be inferred from the circumstances that the matter in question has been finally clarified. After the implementation of contractual measures without the conclusion of a contract or after the year of the end of the contract, the data will be deleted after 3 years of storage, unless there is a longer storage period due to the pursuit of legitimate interests, such as to assert and defend against legal claims or due to statutory retention requirements.

If the user contacts us by e-mail, he can object to the storage of his personal data at any time. In such a case, the conversation cannot be continued. We will then no longer process your personal data, unless there are compelling reasons to the contrary. The objection can be made at any time by email to hello@heartbeat-med.de or by telephone on 030 364 285 390.

III. Use of cookies

1. Cookie integration

We use cookies on our website. Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer system by the internet browser. Temporary cookies, such as session cookies, are cookies that are deleted after you, the user, leave our website and close your browser. Permanent cookies are cookies that remain stored even after the browser has been closed. These cookies can store a log-in status or user interests for range measurement or marketing purposes. If the website is called up again from the same device, the cookie is sent back to the website that generated it (first-party cookie) or to another website to which it belongs (third-party cookie). The website can use a cookie to recognize that it has already been called up with the browser used and can improve your user experience when you visit the website again. Cookies can, for example, remember your preferences and adapt the website to your personal interests.

You can allow cookies in the system settings of your browser through your settings or not. Saved cookies can be deleted in the system settings of your browser. The functionality of websites can be restricted, if cookies are not allowed.

According to the law, we can store cookies on your device if they are absolutely necessary for the operation of this site. The other types of cookies require your declaration of consent.

This website uses different types of cookies. Some cookies are placed by third parties.

2. Cookies requiring consent

When you use our website for the first time, you will be informed about the use of cookies via a cookie consent technology (tool). If you click on Details, you will be shown which cookies we are using, and to which group this cookie belongs. If you do not want to agree to a specific cookie or a specific cookie group of cookies, uncheck the corresponding cookie group and click on Ok to confirm your setting. Note that you cannot influence the use of necessary cookies. Only after you have given your consent, the cookies will be used on the website.

If these cookies also process personal data, you will be informed about this below. You can find additional information, in our cookie consent tool.

Your consent applies to the following domain: heartbeat-medical.com

3. Use of functional cookies

We use function cookies so that you can visit our websites in a user-friendly way and so that they function technically (technically necessary cookies). Some technical elements of our website require that the browser with which you reached our site can technically identify you even after changing pages.

The following data is saved when function cookies are used:

- Language settings
- Browser settings so that we can optimally present our online services to you
- Settings for an even charging process
- Registration data to ensure IT security

The legal basis for the processing of personal data using technically necessary cookies is Art. 6 Para. 1 Clause 1 lit. f GDPR.

4. Use of preference and statistics cookies

We also use preference and statistics cookies on our website to analyze your surfing behavior. When you visit our website, we will ask for your consent to process your following personal data.

- IP address in anonymized form
- Visiting times on our websites
- Visits to other websites
- Search terms
- Frequency of page views
- Use of the functions of our website services

The legal basis for the processing of personal data using analysis purposes is your consent, provided you have given this in our cookie consent tool. You can object to your declared consent to data processing at any time by changing the cookie consent tool settings.

We also see our legitimate interest in accordance with Art. 6 Paragraph 1 Clause 1 lit. f GDPR in the analysis, optimization and economic operation of our online service.

5. Use of Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service from Google Ireland Limited, Gordon House, Barrow Street, Dublin 4, Ireland. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses so-called cookies, text files that are stored on your computer and that enable your use of the website to be analyzed. The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website is usually transferred to a Google server in the USA and stored there. If IP anonymization is activated on this website, your IP address will be shortened beforehand by Google within member states of the European Union or in other contracting states of the Agreement on the European Economic Area. The full IP address is only transmitted to a Google server in the USA and shortened there in exceptional cases. We use Google Analytics to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity and to provide other services relating to website activity and internet usage.

This website uses Google Analytics with the extension "anonymizelp ()". As a result, IP addresses are further processed in abbreviated form, so that personal references can be excluded. If the data collected about you can be linked to a person, this will be excluded immediately, and the personal data will be deleted immediately.

The IP address transmitted by your browser as part of Google Analytics will not be merged with other Google data.

You can find further information on data usage by Google, settings and options to object here:

<http://www.google.com/intl/de/policies/privacy/partners>
<http://www.google.com/policies/technologies/ads>
<http://www.google.de/settings/ads>

We pursue it in accordance with the EU data protection regulations through standard contracts and additional contractual, technical-organizational and other measures to adequately protect your rights and freedoms.

The legal basis for the processing of the data is your consent, provided you have declared this in the cookie consent tool. You can object to your declared consent to data processing at any time by changing the cookie consent tool settings or by changing the settings in your browser. If you also download and install the browser plug-in, you can deactivate Google Analytics <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=de>

6. Google Analytics advertising function

In addition to the standard functions, we also use the extended function of Google Analytics on this website. The Google Analytics advertising functions implemented on this website include:

- Reports on impressions on the Google Display Network
- Google Analytics reports on performance by demographics and interests
- Integrated services for which data is collected in Google Analytics for advertising purposes, including the collection of data via cookies for advertising preferences and anonymous identifiers

In addition to the personal data processing by the analysis tool Google Analytics, personal data is collected via Google cookies for ad preferences and anonymous identifiers for access so that we can improve our website services.

The legal basis for the processing of the data is your consent, provided you have declared this in the cookie consent tool. You can object to your declared consent to data processing at any time by changing the cookie consent tool settings or by changing the settings in your browser. You can prevent the use of Google Analytics through your browser settings or through the Google ad settings <http://www.google.com/ads/preferences/?hl=de> or by deactivating it on the Network Advertising Initiative (NAI) website. at <http://www.networkadvertising.org>

7. Cookie consent with Usercentrics

This website uses the cookie consent technology from Usercentrics (tool) to obtain your consent to the storage of certain cookies on your end device or for the purpose of using certain technologies, for the purpose of data protection-compliant documentation in accordance with Art. 7 Paragraph 1 GDPR.

The provider of this technology is:
Usercentrics GmbH
Rose Valley 4
80331 Munich
Website: usercentrics.com/de/
(hereinafter Usercentrics)

If you use our cookie consent tool, the following personal data will be transmitted to Usercentrics:

- Your consent (s) or the revocation of your consent (s)
- Your IP address
- Information about your browser
- Information about your device
- Time of your visit to the website
- In addition, Usercentrics stores a cookie in your browser in order to be able to assign you the granted consent or its revocation. The data collected in this way is stored until you ask us to delete it, delete the Usercentrics cookie yourself or the purpose for data storage no longer applies. Mandatory statutory retention requirements remain unaffected.

Usercentrics is used to obtain the legally required consent for the use of certain technologies. The legal basis is Art. 6 Paragraph 1 Clause 1 lit. c GDPR.

The legal basis for the use of certain technologies is your declaration of consent. You can revoke your declaration of consent to data processing at any time by changing the settings for your declaration in the cookie consent tool.

8. Use of HubSpot

We use “HubSpot” for our online marketing activities; by HubSpot Ireland Limited, 2nd Floor 30 North Wall Quay, Dublin 1, Ireland. This is an integrated software solution with which we cover various aspects of our online marketing.

These include:

- E-mail marketing (automated mailings, such as for the provision of downloads)

- Social media publishing & reporting
- Reporting, such as traffic sources, accesses
- Contact management, such as user segmentation & CRM
- Landing pages and contact forms

Our registration service enables visitors to our website to find out more about our company, download content and provide their contact information and other demographic information. This information and the content of our website are stored on the servers of our software partner HubSpot. They can be used by us to get in contact with visitors to our website and to determine which services from our company are of interest to them. We use all information collected exclusively to optimize our marketing measures.

- More information on data protection regulations:
<https://legal.hubspot.com/privacy-policy>

The legal basis for the data processing is your consent, provided you have given your consent in our cookie consent tool. You can revoke your declaration of consent to data processing at any time by changing the settings for your declaration in the cookie consent tool.

9. Use of AdRoll

This website uses a retargeting technology from AdRoll Advertising Ltd "AdRoll". This enables us to target you with personalized, interest-based advertising on other websites. The advertising material is displayed on the basis of a cookie-based analysis of previous usage behavior, but no personal data is stored. In the case of retargeting technology, a cookie is stored on your computer or mobile device in order to collect anonymized data about your interests and thus adapt the advertising individually to the stored information. These cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or mobile device.

The legal basis for the data processing is your consent, provided you have given your consent in our cookie consent tool. You can revoke your declaration of consent to data processing at any time by changing the settings for your declaration in the cookie consent tool.

You can permanently object to the setting of cookies for advertising specifications by using the option of setting an opt-out cookie on the page linked below:
<http://www.adroll.com/about/privacy>

Further information and the data protection provisions regarding advertising and AdRoll Advertising Ltd ("AdRoll") can be viewed here: <http://www.adroll.com/about/privacy>

IV. HRTBT on LinkedIn

We have our own company page on the social network LinkedIn, because we want to communicate with our customers, interested parties and users, and want to inform you about our services.

The LinkedIn Ireland Unlimited Company (Ireland / EU- “LinkedIn”) is the provider of the social network LinkedIn. Further information on the processing of personal data by LinkedIn is available at https://www.linkedin.com/legal/privacy-policy?trk=homepage-basic\_footer-privacy-policy

If you visit our LinkedIn company page, follow this page or deal with the page, LinkedIn processes personal data in order to provide us with statistics and insights in anonymous form, so that we can obtain information about the actions of people and when they visit our website, so-called insights.

LinkedIn processes the following data:

- Functional data
- Country, industry and seniority
- Company size
- Employee status
- Interaction status with LinkedIn, such as followers on our company page

Through the insights, LinkedIn does not provide us with any personal data about you. We only have access to the summarized insights. In addition, it is not possible for us to find out about individual members from the information provided by the insights. The processing of personal data through the insights is carried out by LinkedIn and our company as joint controllers.

The processing is based on our legitimate interest according to Art. 6 Para. 1 Clause 1 lit. f GDPR, to evaluate the actions taken on our LinkedIn company page and to improve our company page based on this knowledge. We have concluded an agreement with LinkedIn on processing as jointly responsible at <https://legal.linkedin.com/pages-joint-controller-addendum>

The aforementioned agreement has the following content:

- LinkedIn is responsible for ensuring that you exercise your rights under the GDPR under the contact link <https://www.linkedin.com/help/linkedin/ask/PPQ?lang=de>
- Contact LinkedIn data protection officer <https://www.linkedin.com/help/linkedin/ask/TSO-DPO>
- You can also contact our company to exercise your rights. In such a case, we will forward your request to LinkedIn.
- The Irish Data Protection Commission is the lead supervisory authority www.dataprotection.ie
